- ◆ for off shore student if visa is not granted
- 1.1 Instead of refunding all tuition fees, DELLA may offer the student a place on an alternative course and the student can decide whether to accept this offer or not.
- 1.2 DELLA may also arrange for another course, or part of a course, to be provided to the student at no additional cost to the student as an alternative to refunding the course money. Where the student agrees to this arrangement, DELLA will not be liable to refund the money owed for the original enrolment.
- 1.3 If the student accepts the place on another course within DELLA, a new letter of offer and written agreement will be developed and provided to the student for acceptance.
- 1.5 If DELLA is unable to provide a refund or offer the student a place in another course, the Tuition Protection Service (international student) or Australian Student Assurance Scheme (ASTAS) through ACPET (Domestic Student) of which DELLA is a member will place the student in an alternative course at no extra cost to the student. If this is not possible, the final course of action is for the Tuition Protection Service or ASTAS to attempt to place the student in an alternative course and if this is not possible, the student is entitled to a refund as calculated by the Authority.

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) for International Students

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees.

In the unlikely event DELLA is unable to deliver a course you have paid for and does not meet their obligations to either offer you an alternative course that you accept or pay you a refund of your unspent prepaid tuition fees (this is called a provider's 'default obligations'), the TPS will assist you in finding an alternative course or to get a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

The reforms aim to protect the considerable investment international students make in an Australian education, and to protect and enhance Australia's global reputation.

Some of the key features are:

- A new national TPS which will replace a range of existing tuition assurance arrangements.
- A limit of up to 50 per cent of total tuition fees may be collected prior to student commencement (unless the course is 24 weeks or less).
- Specified providers to keep initial prepaid fees in a separate account until a student commences study.
- Student refunds will be based on unexpended tuition fees (Application and material fees are non-refundable).

Australian Student Tuition Assurance Scheme (ASTAS) for Domestic Students

ACPET's Australian Student Tuition Assurance Scheme (ASTAS) provides members with an inexpensive and uncomplicated means of providing fee protection to students. ASTAS ensures that any Australian student displaced from a course, due to a member's inability to continue the course, is relocated efficiently and with minimal disruption to a comparable course with another member or approved provider.

In the unlikely event DELLA is unable to deliver a course you have paid for and does not meet their obligations to either offer you an alternative course that you accept or pay you a refund of your unspent prepaid tuition fees (this is called a provider's 'default obligations'), the ASTAS will assist you in finding an alternative course or to get a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

The ACPET ASTAS scheme approved under the HESA Act 2003 provides a means whereby a student may receive a refund equivalent to any student fees paid in advance for any undelivered unit of study offered by the provider. This latter scheme only provides for a refund of student prepaid fees for undelivered courses where the student cannot be placed in a comparable course with another provider.

1. Eligible students:

- ◆ citizen or permanent resident of Australia
- ◆ enrolled in approved programs leading to an accredited award
- ◆ tuition fees paid in advance for a period of ten weeks or more.

2. Displacements covered:

- ◆ a course not commencing on the agreed starting date
- ◆ a course ceasing to be provided after it has started
- ◆ the full course not being delivered because a sanction has been imposed on the provider.

Acceptance & Agreement

3. If no member offers a comparable course:

- ◆ ACPET will undertake the necessary financial and administrative arrangements to commission or obtain access to an appropriate course. Additional financial provisions will be required to enable ACPET to cover courses not offered by other providers.

4. Student responsibilities:

- ◆ meeting any relocation expenses
- ◆ the purchase of any texts or materials required by the new provider

1.6 A full refund will also be provided to students in the following circumstances:

- ◆ a student is unable to obtain a student visa (off shore only)
- ◆ a student cannot commence the course because of illness or a disability;
- ◆ where there is death of a close family member of the student (parent, sibling, spouse or child); or
- ◆ at the discretion of the CEO or approved representative, when other special or extenuating circumstances have prevented the student from commencing their studies including political, civil or natural events.

2. Partial Refunds

2.1 Partial refunds will be provided in the following circumstances:

- ◆ If a student has supplied incorrect or incomplete information and as a result DELLA withdraws offer, the student will be eligible to receive all tuition fees paid for the term period less a 20% administration fee.
- ◆ If a student who has accepted an offer of a place gives more than 28 days written notice before the commencement of the study period that they will not be undertaking the course, the tuition fees paid for the study period are refundable less a 20% administration fee.
- ◆ Where a student has not met the conditions included in the letter of offer and withdraws 0 – 28 days before Course commencement, the tuition fees paid for the term period will be refunded less a 20% administration fee.
- ◆ Where a student withdraws from a course 0 – 28 days before the course commencement, except for the reasons set out in 1.6, 50% of the tuition fees paid thus far will be refunded.
- ◆ Where an on shore student is renewing their visa and the outcome is refused, students will only be refunded any unused tuition fees.

2. Student is not eligible for a refund

3.1 Where DELLA terminates the student's enrolment, because of a failure to comply with DELLA policies, misbehaviour or unsatisfactory course progress or attendance,

3.2 If a student's visa is cancelled during a study period

3.3 If the student withdraws from a course after the course start date,

4 Refunds for students who have a packaged offer for multiple courses

4.1 Where students have a packaged offer for multiple courses within DELLA or a partner college and does not receive their results until less than 28 days before the course commencement date and the results show that the student does not meet the entry requirements for the next course, and if the student submits a Cancellation Form to DELLA of the intention to defer or withdraw from a course of study within 14 days of receiving their results, then one of the following will occur:

- ◆ All fees except the enrolment deposit are refundable less an administrative fee of 20% of the tuition fee for the term period
- ◆ the student can transfer the fees to the next available study period.

5 Payment of refunds

5.1 Eligibility for a refund will be assessed based on this Policy.

5.2 If a student's refund application is approved, the student's enrolment will be cancelled and fees refunded as per this policy. (this includes any tuition/course fees collected by education agents on behalf of the DELLA)

5.3 Students, who withdraw from a course and wish to seek a refund or have the amount they owe on their fees reduced, must apply to DELLA in writing using the Refund Application Form. Students who have not completed these forms are not eligible for consideration of a refund or reduction in fees.
